Robertson Teen Book ClubRobertson Branch*Tuesday, September 1, 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm

Teens, join us for this month's Teen Book Club as we dive into Stargirl by Jerry Spinelli, the unforgettable coming-of-age novel about individuality, kindness, and the courage to be yourself. Follow Stargirl Caraway, a homeschooled student entering public high school for the very first time. At first, her unique personality, free spirit, and ukulele charm everyone around her. But as she refuses to conform to what others expect, she discovers that being different isn't always easy. Together, we'll explore the novel's themes of friendship, identity, acceptance, and staying true to yourself through thoughtful discussion and conversation. Whether you've loved Stargirl for years or are discovering it for the first time, Teen Book Club is the perfect place to share ideas, make new friends, and celebrate the power of being unapologetically yourself. Registration in advance is required as space is limited. Contact 318-640-3098 for more information.

The Southern: A Book ClubWestside Regional Library*Tuesday, September 1, 10:00 am to 11:30 am

Join us on the first Tuesday of the month as Southern Readers dives into The Midnight Library by Matt Haig, a thought-provoking novel that explores the lives we might have lived and the choices that shape who we become. Through unforgettable characters and powerful storytelling, this bestselling novel asks an intriguing question: If you could revisit the roads not taken, would you choose a different path? Whether you've already finished the book or are looking for a lively literary discussion, pull up a chair and join fellow readers for an afternoon of thoughtful conversation, fresh perspectives, and a shared love of great books. Come discover why The Midnight Library has captured the hearts of readers around the world. Contact 318-442-2483 for more information.

Triple-A Book ClubMartin Luther King, Jr. Branch*Tuesday, September 8, 5:30 pm to 7:00 pm

Step into the conversation with a book that challenges perspectives and sparks meaningful discussion. Join us on a literacy journey where we explore thought-provoking stories, tackle taboo subjects, and encourage honest, respectful conversations in a welcoming environment. This month's selection is Hell of a Book: or the Altogether Factual, Wholly Bone Fide Story of a Big Dream, Hard Luck, American-Made Mad Kid by Jason Mott—an award-winning novel that blends humor, heart, and powerful social commentary into an unforgettable reading experience. This is an opportunity to share ideas, hear different viewpoints, and engage in meaningful dialogue with fellow readers. Books are available at the library, so pick up your copy and join us for an engaging conversation you won't want to miss. Contact 318-445-3912 for more information.

Kids' Book ClubLibuse Branch*Tuesday, September 8, 6:00 pm to 6:30 pm

Join Everly "Benny" Benedict as she attempts to win a fortune and solve a decades old mystery in Jen Calonita's Isle of Ever. This is the first book in an ongoing series and is sure to draw readers in and leave them ready for book two. Then come to the Libuse Branch for snacks and a book discussion. Registration in advance is required as space is limited. Contact 318-443-7259 for more information.

The Final ChapterMartin Library*Tuesday, September 8, 5:30 pm to 6:30 pm

Love stories that keep you up at night? Join The Final Chapter, our horror and thriller book club where the only thing sharper than the twists are the readers themselves. Each month, we'll dive into chilling tales of suspense, psychological thrillers, and spine-tingling horror—from haunting classics to modern nightmares. Come ready to dissect the darkest plots, debate unforgettable villains, and share what kept you turning pages with the lights on. In September, we will be reading Nightwatching by Tracy Sierra. Contact 318-442-7575 for more information.

The Curious Readers SocietyMartin Library*Tuesday, September 8, 11:00 am to 12:00 pm

Welcome to Martin Library's brand new book club for kids ages 9-15: The Curious Reader Society! Join us as we explore exciting stories, share ideas, and take part in fun activities inspired by each book. Whether you love mystery, adventure, or just a great story, there's something for everyone! For the month of September, we'll be discussing Solimar: The Sword of the Monarcha by Pam Munoz Ryan. Contact 318-442-7575 for more information.

Little Bit of Everything Book ClubWestside Regional Library*Monday, September 14, 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm

Melted Crayon Art

Libuse Branch

Tuesday, September 1, 5:30 pm to 7:00 pm

Teens, bring a friend or your favorite grown-up to the Libuse Branch for a fun and creative afternoon of Melted Crayon Art! Together, you'll transform ordinary crayons into vibrant, one-of-a-kind masterpieces using colorful melting techniques that are as fun to watch as they are to create. Whether you come with a parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle, older sibling, family friend, or another special person in your life, this class is all about making memories while creating something amazing. Don't have someone who can attend with you? That's perfectly okay! Teens are welcome to be dropped off for the class and picked up when it ends. Please note: Grown-ups must attend with a teen. No grown-ups without a teen, please. Registration in advance is required as space is limited. Contact 318-443-7259 for more information.
